(Happy
New Year!)

January 9, 2010

สวัสดีปีใหม่ค่ะ

I pray that God will bless you, your families, friends, and churches in 2010... He has great things ahead!

a reQUEST for prayer

friends Liw and Nan are not Christians yet

THIS WEEKEND (Jan 16th-17th) we will have a special event called QUEST for students who are interested in Christianity. We will have games, music, discussion groups, a message about the Christian faith, and opportunities for the students to ask questions. This QUEST is the first in a series this year—our goal is to have at least six or seven QUEST events in 2010, giving the students a chance to explore Christianity in a safe, fun environment. Please pray for QUEST! I am so excited about the potential that it holds for our students, our church, and really, for the future of the nation! There are specific ways you can pray...

BEFORE QUEST: Pray that many students will be interested and available to come; pray for Pastor King as he prepares a message for the students; pray for Scott, Julie and me as we prepare activities and discussion questions that lead students toward Christ. FOLLOWING QUEST: Pray that students will respond to Christ and begin a relationship with Him; pray that seeds will be planted, watered, and will start to grow so more Thai people will become Christians; pray for more and more students to come to future QUEST events; pray that QUEST will be the beginning of a great harvest of students brought into the Kingdom of God! Thank you for praying—your prayers make a difference!!!

CHRISTMAS

with students: a Christmas party with snowballs (?!), gingerbread houses, and the complete salvation story!

It was my first Christmas away from home, but God gave me a family here to celebrate with! Some friends from Bangkok came to visit too. Visit my blog to find out more!
