

Liberty English Center

July 13, 2012

The last few months have been a season of expansion! I have been privileged to host three teams, for a total of 13 people volunteering this summer. Last month, with the help of the Evangel University team, we started Liberty English Center at a Thai church in Chiang Mai. It started off slowly but we now have 11 students and already we are making friends with them, and some have even asked to learn more about Christianity. I am excited about our second location, and I can't wait to see what God will do through our work there.

How can you help? In the summers, we have plenty of teachers who are on summer break from college. Come August, our teams return to America for school, and we once again need volunteers to help us! Now that we have two locations, our need has doubled. Please pray for teachers to staff both English centers starting in August, and please consider coming to help us too! If you are interested, contact me at lauren.becker@agmd.org.

Praise and Prayer PRAISE GOD FOR: three teams (lots of help!) this summer; many new students at TLC English Center; the opportunity to start Liberty English Center and new students to bring to Christ. PLEASE PRAY FOR: teachers for both English Centers starting in August and for the remainder of this year; students Nok, Golf, and Nam who are learning about God; me to find a house to rent now and for next term--my lease ends in one month.
