REACHING STUDENTS, MAKING DISCIPLES

March 10, 2014

BEYOND

In January I had the opportunity to attend the BEYOND church planting conference in Nairobi, Kenya. Missionaries from around the world gathered to collaborate on ways to plant churches among unreached peoples using a team approach. We heard great speakers, attended workshops, and used every minute at meals and coffee breaks to brainstorm and share what God is doing. I learned about new methods for personal evangelism and starting small groups. Our team in Thailand will be discussing these methods and thinking about how we can apply them in a Buddhist context. Times of corporate prayer for unreached peoples was a highlight of the conference.

Friends from college! Jared (serving in Asia); Jonathan and Rachel (Tanzania) and their son Caleb

I made some new friends too.

Back in Chiang Mai

I taught a special two-week course in January. For a lesson on giving directions, we made an American breakfast: scrambled eggs, homemade sausage, and toast!

Praise and Prayer

PRAISE GOD FOR: an inspiring, challenging conference on church planting in Kenya; wisdom in planning for 2014; opportunities to see and encourage friends in ministry from around the world! PLEASE PRAY: that many students will come to study at TLC over the next six months while school is out; for summer teams as they fundraise and prepare; for continued health and protection.

SPARE SIXTY

Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand?

Thai New Year is celebrated over three days in the middle of April. That week is known as "seven deadly days" because of the high number of serious traffic accidents as people drive drunk. Please pray for supernatural safety and protection on the roads.
