missionary to Thailand

June 2008

Itineration! Time is ticking away...

What is itineration, exactly? That's what I'm trying to figure out myself! Right now I am working to schedule meetings with pastors and services at churches. It is starting off slowly, but I know that God is faithful to complete what He has started. Please contact me if you would like to have me speak at your church. I am excited to share the passion God has given me for Thailand, and the great need of that country for Jesus.

This Month...

On June 21, I head to Springfield, Missouri, for three weeks of Missionary Training. I will take classes in culture and living overseas, and spend time with new and veteran missionaries. Also, I will be able to see many of my friends from college, which I am looking forward to!

Culture Corner

Thailand's population is 95% Buddhist. Many of these Buddhists are also animists, which means they believe in the power of spirits, make offerings to them, and ask them for favor. Spirit houses like this one are found in nearly every home, front yard, and business.

Praise and Prayer

Ways to Praise:

- A few commitments have already come in
- God is teaching me through this process about TRUST and FAITH
- I am able to visit friends and be encouraged in Missouri

Ways to Pray:

- for favor with people I call or meet
- That God would enable me to share His heart for Thailand
- for services to be scheduled!
- that God would prepare me spiritually for serving in Thailand
